Yester Tales is a collection of snapshots from History. Short, and hopefully, delivering a punch. These stories might not start conventionally from a person's date of birth – in fact, they don't. Sometimes, they're action-packed. Sometimes, they're slower, deeper. Sometimes they're letters written by one person to another. But at all times, they tell you something significant about the person at the crux of the story. These people lived, fought, loved and died, for real. Yester Tales will show you, through these stories, a facet of their life that's not well-known – or highlight an event that deserves more than just a line in a textbook. Yester Tales are for everyone; young, old, and any age in the middle. Yester Tales will bring History alive.

Nissim Ezekiel - R. Raj Rao

Nissim Ezekiel is regarded as the father of modern Indian English poetry, and the founder of the Bombay school of poetry. In this meticulously researched biography, R. Raj Rao traces the development of Ezekiel's poetry and life against the background of the intellectual, cultural and political climate in India-from the 1930s to the end of the 20th century. The last section of the book deals with Ezekiel's increasing loneliness and his inability to recognize old friends, and finally being diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease in 1998. Drawing on previously unpublished letters, poems and essays, as well as discussions with the poet and interviews with friends and peers, Rao examines the desires and realities of Ezekiel's life. Rao also provides detailed analyses of Ezekiel's poems. Scholarly, exhaustive and provocative, this is the definitive biography of one of India's foremost poets.

Chisel's Blows : An Autobiography of a Muslim Professor's success in Tolerant India - Dr. S. N. Pathan

About the Book:

"Chisel's Blows" is an album of the memories of my student life. I have penned this autobiography especially for children who are struggling and encountering the pangs of adversities just as I have done. Many times I find that students today get disheartened even by petty or trivial issues. If there is some flaw in their efforts, they either blame it on society, casteism or sometimes even on fate. They believe it to be the fruit of their destiny and put an end to their efforts. Sometimes they also fall prey to vices and do not reach their planned destination.

beyond the horizon beyond - Kala Ramesh

About the Book :

'beyond the horizon beyond', Kala Ramesh's first book of haiku and haibun, contains eleven years of her work. It includes 283 haiku arranged into the five elements known as the Panchabhutas, and 41 haibun (haiku embedded in prose). The cover design and illustrations are by Prabha Mallya. Richard Gilbert comments: "in this book are many examples of Kala's unique voice, which offers a delicacy of language, through her ability to articulate nuanced interior worlds." Bill Kenney observes that "all Kala's many interests and studies resolve themselves in Kala: Haiku poet? Indian poet? Woman poet? A phenomenal poet, surely, ever absorbing and moving beyond what she finds in haiku, in art, in philosophy, in life. Travel with her as she takes us beyond the horizon beyond."

Naad Anunaad - Kala Ramesh, Sanjuk Asopa & Shloka Shankar

About the Book:

Haiku are word paintings that pilot the reader beyond the image into a sacred realm. For a poem complete in just a few words, resonance becomes the keynote. In Sanskrit, the primordial sound in the cosmos is known as naad and its resonance as anunaad. According to ancient Indian texts, an instrument, including the human body, vibrates only to this timeless sound. The 746 haiku in this volume come from 26 countries. They resonate, each in a unique way — just for you!
