Dear Readers,

Started in the year 2012, with a vision to bring quality content to students and professionals across various fields of management and engineering alike, Vishwakarma Publications' story has been one of setting new milestones and creating success stories.

Since we began, we are proud to have included various genres as well as languages under our fold.

We are happy to announce the releases of our first round of the 2019 collection!

This edition has been the most exciting. While we have some new authors on board, we are glad to see some others braving the pen-ship once more!

We are proud to present a diverse and colourful bouquet of books. Bittersweet, In this life or the next and Inspector Chougule are a few of the many eye-opening and fascinating stories we have to offer. The Abandoned Daughter, The Hawa Mahal Murders and Anecdotes of a white-collared slave are some of our page-turning reads.

In our Business / Management and Self-Help section, we have books useful for professionals, students and senior citizens; 12 Sutras of Leadership, No Holy Cows in Business and Enrich Life are some of the few to look forward to.

We are also proud to feature the expansion of our Distribution. We have successfully achieved to make our authors' books available across stores in India. Our online distribution covers not only our home site; vishwakarmapublications.com, but also various other online book shopping portals such as Amazon, Flipkart and BookGanga, Book depository etc.

Our objective as always remains the same; enriching the existing community of readers with our excellent array of books from several genres and infect others with the joyous habit of reading through cultures, languages, art, photography and stories.
